Product Terms & Support:

- With Annual licensing agreements, you pay for all current license counts up-front for one year. As with the Annual Billed Monthly agreement, you'll avoid price increases announced during that term. Licenses can be added at any point but cannot be removed until the end of the one-year term.
- Working with a true IT Partner and CSP like SIS: You express a need for Microsoft licenses. In a one-on-one conversation, an SIS expert asks you questions about your business needs and what you're looking for. Understanding your business goals as well as the organization size, industry, and technical needs, SIS makes customized recommendations based on your conversation and advises you on how this solution can be used to achieve your goals. We decide on the right licensing SKU and model together. You agree to the terms that work best for you, feeling confident about your choice. When you need to make changes to your licensing, you simply reach out to SIS and discuss the situation. SIS takes care of adjusting everything for you. If you have technical issues, you reach out directly to SIS and our technical staff provides support, working to resolve the issue quickly and engaging Microsoft as needed.
